O R D E R

One of the learned Members of the Bench (Mr. Justice Shahid Waheed) is unwell and has not held Court today. Accordingly, the remaining seven learned Members of the Bench met the learned counsel for the parties in the Ante Room of the Court for a Chamber hearing. The Bench inquired from the learned Attorney General for Pakistan about the progress made on rationalizing the provisions of the Supreme Court (Practice and Procedure) Act, 2023 ("Act") and on curing the overlap between its provisions and those of the Supreme Court (Review of Judgments and Orders) Act, 2023 ("Review Act").

2. The learned Attorney General informed the Bench that the preparatory and drafting work in the foregoing matters had begun but legislative work could not be undertaken on account of the Budget Session of Parliament that is to commence on 09.06.2023. Thereafter, Parliament will take a short recess for Eid-ul-Azha. Accordingly, Parliament shall have time to start work on the Act and the Review Act in the month of July 2023. He, therefore, sought further time for the requisite legislative work to be completed. The request is allowed.

3. Adjourned. Re-list in July 2023.
